Re: Letter of Recommendation

Greg Johnson Photography has been providing photographic services to Conexus since January 2006. The company provides great customer service, quality photography and boasts a modern studio that meets our corporate needs.

Often times we are shooting staff and customers who may not be comfortable in front of the camera. Greg and his staff are experts at making people feel comfortable so they can get that 'perfect' shot.

The people at GJ Photography are flexible and at our request have conducted photo shoots at a variety of locations outside of their studio. They are also adept at last minute location changes when the "elements" are not cooperating.

The works of GJ Photography have appeared in our corporate magazine, Experience Conexus, and they have photographed Conexus staff and sales professionals for our corporate phone directory.

Greg and his staff go that extra mile for their clients. It is always a pleasure working with the talented people at GJ Photography. I would whole-heartedly recommend GJ Photography to my colleagues.

Sincerely,
